

8.06 Theft

(1) Whoever intentionally takes and carries away, uses, transfers, conceals, or retains possession of movable property of another without the consent of that person or attempts to do so and the intent to deprive the owner permanently of possession of such property.

(2) DEFINITIONS. In this section: (a) "Property" means all forms of tangible property, whether real or personal, without limitation including electricity, gas, and documents which represent or embody a choice in action or other intangible rights.

(b) "Movable property" is property whose physical location can be changed, without limitation including electricity and gas, documents which represent or embody intangible rights, and things growing on, affixed to, or found in land.

(c) "Property of another" includes property in which the actor is a co-owner and property of a partnership of which the actor is a member, unless the actor and the victim are husband and wife.

(3) PENALTIES. Any person who violates this section shall forfeit not more than $500.00, together with the cost of prosecution and may be ordered to pay restitution and complete community service.
